

K-Love is offers a family oriented radio broadcasting program and is the only alternative to the commercialized programs that often contradict Christian values. Removing this public service would negatively impact the community.